WALKING

This hike at the bottom of the Pyrenean foothills is a real journey into wonderland. This land is packed with history, partly sculpted by man and nature has also played its part as proven by the winding Ossau Stream. The path runs through moors.

★ À ne pas manquer

- Puesto de tiro. Estos puestos de tiro se utilizan en las batidas. La altura de los helechos hace que sea necesario estar más arriba para tener más visibilidad.
- Molino Vignau. Vista sobre las crestas de Lazerque
- Puente Vignau. Rare point de passage reliant les deux berges du gave entre Arudy et Oloron Sainte-Marie, le pont Vignau permettait, en son temps, aux paysans ou aux particuliers l'accès au moulin Vignau pour y faire moudre le grain (millocq et froment). Son activité cessa en 1927 suite à une inondation. Il ne subsiste que les murs et le canal d'aménagé.
- Mirador. Vue sur les crêtes de Lazerque

★ Étapes

- Step 1. Ogeu. From Oloron Sainte-Marie's station take "All directions" and follow Pau's indications. Leaving Oloron continue straight away at the rounabout. In Hérrère after the railroad crossing, turn on the right direction Arudy. At Ogeu-les-Bains take the direction of the town hall and follow until a large park. Park just near the area of child's games. Leave the car park on the left then take Rue du Bois on the right. Cross the bridge (or ford!) and walk on the right. Carry on along Rue du Bois along the Lapeyre. When the surface changes, ignore the right-hand track and turn at the second.
- Step 2. Hourcade heath. Cross the ford (or bridge) and continue on the gravel track. A little higher up, take the dirt path on the left in the corner of a field. Come out onto a moor where the views appear. Continue on the trail then follow a little path on the left after a thicket of shrubs. Continue on this track until you're along a fence and cross a piste.
- Step 3. Belvedere. Turn left and walk on the farm path. At the next junction, go up the piste and come out into a meadow. Go through the gate and straight down (left of a green cabin) then the path goes left and into the woods.
- Step 4. Richette woods. Go down the dirt path that runs along the stream later on. Go past Vigneau Bridge and carry on. Sometimes the path splits but you can pick it up later. After a stream, ignore the right-hand track and carry on along the trail.
- Step 5. Pasturelle. Carry on along the winding path until a stream. Go back up and cross a large meadow then veer left until the gate. A grassy path leads to a track.
- Step 6. Les palombières. Take the right-hand path and walk to a picnic area and road. Turn right and stay on the road until you get into Ogeu and the car park.
- Step 7. Back to Ogeu. Take the right-hand path and walk to a picnic area and road. Turn right and stay on the road until you get into Ogeu and the car park.
