★ Étapes

- Step 1. On the road. From Oloron Sainte-Marie's station take "All directions" and follow Pau's indications. Leaving Oloron continue straight away at the roundabout. In Hérère after the railroad crossing, turn on the right direction Arudy and on the right again to enter in Hérère. Follow the church direction. At the church take on the left "Rue du Presbytère" and again on the left "Rue des Pyrénées". You're arrived at the departure of the walk. Leave the car park, go down the street and get back onto Rue des Pyrénées. Go left and walk on the road. Ignore the Liuret cul-de-sac and carry on until Bordes Farm.
- Step 2. Fern area. Take a right on the path in front of the farm. At the fork take the dirt path on the right (GR78 Piemont Way). Walk on the main track in the undergrowth then through the ferns. After a long straight line take a right in front of a thicket.
- Step 3. Woods. Pick up the path below and carry on to get into the woods. Take the right-hand path and carry on the descent. Come out onto a U-turn area and a gravel path. Keep walking and look out for a trail starting on the left.
- Step 4. Along the stream. Follow the winding trail that takes you to the banks of the stream. Go along the stream among the moss and plants then get back onto the track. Continue to the foot of a hill after a bridge.
- Step 5. Ascent. Take a left on the trail, go along a large agricultural plot and continue in the woods. Leave the Devil's Bridge and pass an old mill. After a bend, the pebble track goes up steeply. Reach the top.
- Step 6. Back to Hérère. Take the left-hand path and reach the Priou de Haut area. Stay on the main road and go straight on at the crossroads (watch the traffic). Walk on the old road lined with pebble walls until Hérère.
